

Louisiana State Fair 2026: Dates, Tickets & Travel Guide

The Louisiana State Fair 2026 returns to Shreveport from October 29 through November 15 for carnival rides, livestock shows, live entertainment, rodeo events, food, competitions, and family activities. Held at the Louisiana State Fairgrounds, the event is one of the state's major annual celebrations and attracts visitors from across Louisiana and neighboring states.

The 2026 edition is especially notable as the 120th annual State Fair of Louisiana, giving visitors another reason to experience this long-running Louisiana tradition.

Louisiana State Fair 2026 Dates & Location

These are the essential details to know before planning your visit.

- Dates: October 29-November 15, 2026
- Venue: Louisiana State Fairgrounds, Shreveport, Louisiana
- Address: 3701 Hudson Avenue, Shreveport, LA 71109
- Tickets: Check Tickets

The fairgrounds are located near Interstate 20, making the event accessible by car from Shreveport and surrounding communities.

What Is the Louisiana State Fair?

The State Fair of Louisiana is an annual celebration of agriculture, livestock, entertainment, food, competitions, and Louisiana culture.

Agriculture remains an important part of the event, while the fair also offers a large carnival midway, live entertainment, rodeo events, special event days, food vendors, and attractions for families. The organization describes the fair as a way to promote Louisiana's agricultural and industrial resources through education and entertainment.

What to Expect at the Louisiana State Fair 2026

The 2026 fair combines traditional agricultural activities with carnival entertainment and special events.

Carnival Rides and Midway

The carnival is one of the biggest attractions at the fair. Visitors can enjoy thrill rides, family rides, games, and classic midway entertainment.

The fair's 2026 carnival partner is Talley Amusements, which is bringing a selection of rides and attractions to the fairgrounds. The official fair site says more information about the 2026 carnival lineup will be released as the event approaches.

Livestock Shows

Livestock is a major part of the State Fair of Louisiana. Visitors can see agricultural animals and livestock competitions throughout the fair. The event is also recognized as the state's largest livestock show, making this an important stop for travelers interested in Louisiana agriculture.

LRCA Finals Rodeo

The LRCA Finals Rodeo is one of the major attractions during opening weekend. The 2026 schedule lists rodeo events for October 29, October 30, and October 31, giving visitors a chance to combine a fair visit with a major Western-style sporting event.

Live Music and Entertainment

Live entertainment is another major part of the fair experience. The schedule includes live music and other performances throughout the fair. Visitors should check the official daily schedule closer to their visit because performers and showtimes can change.

Competitions and Exhibits

The fair features a wide range of competitions and exhibits. The 2026 calendar includes events such as the 4-H Talent Contest, 4-H Nutrition Quiz Bowl, 4-H Livestock Quiz Bowl, Louisiana Beef Cook Off, Tamale Showdown Contest, Hay Bale Decorating Contest, and other competitive events. These activities give visitors a closer look at Louisiana's agricultural, culinary, and community traditions.

Fair Food

Food is an important part of the Louisiana State Fair experience. Visitors can expect classic carnival favorites along with Louisiana-inspired dishes and regional flavors. Food vendors operate independently, so prices vary by vendor. The official fair FAQ notes that most vendors accept cash and cards.

Louisiana State Fair Hours

The fair's official 2026 hours are subject to updates. The fair's official hours page currently states that the 2026 operating schedule will be announced. Check the official hours page before your visit rather than relying on older schedules.

The current Shreveport tourism listing gives general 2026 hours of 12 PM-9 PM on weekdays and 10 AM-10 PM on weekends, but travelers should verify these times with the fair before visiting because daily hours can change.

Special Events at the Louisiana State Fair 2026

Several special days are already listed for the 2026 fair.

Glitz & Grit

October 31, 2026 features the Glitz & Grit event as part of the fair's special programming.

Latino Day

November 14, 2026 is scheduled as Latino Day, celebrating Louisiana's Latino community and culture.

Veterans & Military Appreciation Day

November 15, 2026 is scheduled as Veterans & Military Appreciation Day.

Travel Tips for Visiting the Louisiana State Fair

These practical tips can make your visit easier.

- Check the official schedule before going: Daily events, entertainment, and hours can vary.
 - Consider a weekday visit: Free admission is available until 3 PM on weekdays according to the current fair FAQ.
 - Arrive early: Morning and early afternoon visits can give you more time to explore livestock and exhibits.
 - Plan around the rodeo: Opening weekend is particularly useful for visitors interested in the LRCA Finals Rodeo.
 - Wear comfortable shoes: The fairgrounds cover a large area and involve considerable walking.
 - Prepare for changing weather: Late October and November can bring different temperatures and weather conditions in Shreveport.
 - Bring an appropriate bag: Security screening and bag restrictions apply. Check the current policy before arriving.
 - Plan for security screening: Guests and belongings are subject to security checks and metal detection.
 - Take advantage of free parking: The official FAQ currently states that general parking is complimentary.
 - Check the minor policy: Visitors under 18 must have an accompanying parent, guardian, or qualifying chaperone after 6 PM under the current policy.
-

Things to Do Near the Louisiana State Fair

Shreveport has several attractions worth adding to your fair trip.

Explore Downtown Shreveport

Downtown Shreveport offers restaurants, entertainment, museums, riverfront attractions, and local shops.

It is an easy way to add city exploration to a fair-focused trip.

Visit the Shreveport Aquarium

The Shreveport Aquarium is a family-friendly attraction featuring marine life and interactive exhibits. It can be a good option for families looking for an activity away from the fairgrounds.

Explore the Louisiana Boardwalk

The Louisiana Boardwalk Outlets in nearby Bossier City offer shopping, restaurants, and entertainment along the Red River.

Visit the Shreveport-Bossier Riverfront

The Red River area provides opportunities for walking, sightseeing, dining, and enjoying the scenery around Shreveport and Bossier City.

Explore Local Louisiana Food

A visit to Shreveport is also a chance to experience Louisiana cuisine beyond the fairgrounds. Look for local restaurants serving Cajun, Creole, Southern, and regional Louisiana dishes.

Is the Louisiana State Fair Worth Visiting?

The Louisiana State Fair is a good choice for travelers who enjoy traditional state fairs but also want a distinctly Louisiana experience.

The combination of livestock, agriculture, carnival rides, live music, rodeo events, competitions, food, and cultural programming gives visitors plenty to experience.

The fair's Shreveport location also makes it easy to combine the event with a weekend exploring northwest Louisiana.

Conclusion

The Louisiana State Fair 2026 takes place from October 29 through November 15 at the Louisiana State Fairgrounds in Shreveport.

The 120th annual fair brings together carnival rides, livestock, agriculture, live entertainment, food, competitions, and the LRCA Finals Rodeo. Special events including Latino Day and Veterans & Military Appreciation Day add additional reasons to plan a visit.

If you are traveling to Shreveport for the fair, consider staying long enough to explore the city's attractions, restaurants, and nearby Bossier City.

Frequently Asked Questions

When is the Louisiana State Fair 2026?

The Louisiana State Fair 2026 takes place from October 29 through November 15, 2026, in Shreveport, Louisiana.

Where is the Louisiana State Fair held?

The fair is held at the Louisiana State Fairgrounds, 3701 Hudson Avenue, Shreveport, Louisiana 71109.

How long does the Louisiana State Fair last?

The 2026 fair runs for 18 calendar days, from October 29 through November 15, although it is not open every day. The 2026 schedule indicates that the fair is closed on Mondays and Tuesdays, with an exception for Tuesday, November 3.

What is the Louisiana State Fair known for?

The fair is known for livestock shows, carnival rides, live entertainment, Louisiana food, agriculture, competitions, and the LRCA Finals Rodeo.

Is the Louisiana State Fair family-friendly?

Yes. The fair describes itself as family-friendly and offers carnival rides, livestock exhibits, competitions, entertainment, food, and attractions for visitors of different ages.

What can I do near the Louisiana State Fair?

Visitors can explore downtown Shreveport, the Shreveport Aquarium, the Louisiana Boardwalk in Bossier City, the Red River area, and local Louisiana restaurants during their fair trip.